

PRESS RELEASE

Date: 20th August 2010

SAS DANIELS TO HOST SECOND SENECA OPEN DAY

Following on from the success of the previous Seneca open day held at Schofield Sweeney Solicitors in Leeds last month, emis intellectual technology™ and SAS Daniels LLP, an established Cheshire based legal firm and Seneca system users of four years, will be teaming up to host a second Seneca open day in September 2010.

As with the previous Seneca open day, the event, which will be held on the 29th September 2010, showcases the proven Seneca software to potential new customers, with demonstrations, question and answer sessions and even the chance to test drive the software. Once again, a buffet lunch is included.

You're invited!

Thinking of introducing an integrated Case and Practice Management solution into your firm? Perhaps you already have a system but are considering your options as you approach renewal? Still managing costly multiple systems?

Then why not join us for our open day, showcasing Seneca, our complete Case, Practice and Business Management solution.

- Observe demonstrations of the software
- Ask the team questions
- Test drive the software
- Buffet lunch and refreshments.

Jonathan Vaughan, Implementation & Training Manager with emis intellectual technology™ said:

“After the resounding success of the previous Seneca open day, we just knew that we had to run a second one. Firms who attended the first open day were very impressed with the software and particularly liked the relaxed approach to the day, with no sales pressure which can be common at such events.”
