EMISIT LAUNCH NEW WEB SITE

Rapidly growing professional software solutions provider, emis intellectual technology, has launched a new web site to reflect what they believe is the shifting market emphasis towards integrated technology.

Jonathan Graham, General Manager for Sales and Marketing says:

“We were conscious that our previous site didn’t reflect the way that Seneca – our software suite – like the market, has now matured into a fully integrated Contact, File Practice and Activity management solution.”

“The new site shows just how we provide everything a professional organisation needs in one software solution and for one price.”

You can find the site at www.emisit.com
