EMIS INTELLECTUAL TECHNOLOGY BEATS PERSONAL BEST TO HELP MERGE SAS DANIELS

emis intellectual technology have again proved that they are the fastest growing supplier to the legal technology market by being chosen as the supplier to help merge SAS Lawyers of Stockport and Bramhall and Daniels Solicitors based in Macclesfield and Congleton into SAS Daniels.

The combined system, which has already gone live, means that emis' Seneca integrated CM, PM and DD suite is implemented over four sites across the northwest and used by over 130 users.

This surpasses emis' "personal best" (only set in September 2006) in winning a contract with the prestigious 95 user Isle of Man law firm Dickinson Cruickshank.

Chris Spencer, Solicitor and Development Director of emis intellectual technology's™ says:

"This is a further indication of what has become the rapid recent uptake of our technology and the benefit of truly integrated technology"

Nigel Haddon - Managing partner commented:

"This has been a complex and well executed project that will help us realise the synergy in merging the two firms. I'm looking forward to working with emis on other projects we have in the pipeline."
